From the Vineyard

Newsletter No. 32 - June 1, 2018

FATHER STEPHEN DECARLO was ordained to the priesthood last Friday night at our Cathedral. It was a warm and humid night and the pews were packed for the Ordination Mass! What a great joy for Father Stephen, his family and friends and our Diocese. He was kept busy afterwards receiving visitors and dispensing blessings in Bishop Doyle Hall. Then, on Saturday evening, Father Stephen celebrated his first Mass at his home parish, Sacred Heart Parish here in Peterborough. Please keep him in your prayers as he prepares to take up his first pastoral assignment at St. Mary Parish in Lindsay.

ARCHBISHOP MURRAY CHATLAIN OF KEEWATIN-LE PAS wrote a kind note to us last month, grateful for the appeal that took place in the Diocese of Peterborough on their behalf.

"We were so grateful when we received your letter and donation just after Easter. A real Easter gift.....We also greatly appreciate your thoughts and prayers. When people in another part of Canada are thinking of us and praying for us, it encourages us. We are not alone. Please be assured of our prayers and good wishes for you." Peterborough is one of six southern dioceses linked with Keewatin-Le Pas, all part of a project by the Canadian Bishops to assist remote dioceses in the northern regions of our vast country.

You're Invited! Fr. Gerardus will be leading a Pilgrimage to Holy Land: March 3-11, 2019. For itinerary details and cost, please pick up a flyer from Father or the Parish Office.
